NOTIFICATION. 691

No. 1449—Cts. 76-52-1, dated Bangalore, 27th June 1952.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 30 of the Official Trustees Act, 1913 (Central Act No. II of 1913), His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore is pleased to make the following rules, namely :—

1. These rules may be called the Official Trustees (Mysore) Rules, 1952.

2. (1) The Official Trustee shall charge in respect of all trust properties transferred to or vested in him under the Official Trustees Act, 1913 (hereinafter referred to as the Act)—

(i) On all capital moneys and on the capital value of all other properties and securities of any kind whatsoever, constituting the corpus of the trust received by him, a fee according to the following scale, subject to a minimum of ten rupees :—

	Per cent.
On estates of a value not exceeding one lakh of rupees	Two
On estates of a value exceeding one lakh but not exceeding two lakhs of rupees—
On the first lakh	Two
On the remainder	One and a half.
On estates of a value exceeding two lakhs of rupees—
On the first lakh	Two
On the second lakh	One and a half.
On the remainder	One

(ii) On all sums received by him by way of interest or dividends in respect of moneys invested and on all rents and profits collected by him, a fee of 5 per cent subject to the following minimum :—

Where the income does not exceed twenty rupees per half year.	One rupee per half year.
Wher the income exceeds twenty rupees but does not exceed fifty rupees per half year.	Two rupees and eight annas per half year.
Where the income exceeds fifty rupees but does not exceed seventy-five rupees per half year.	Three rupees and twelve annas per half year.
Where the income exceeds seventy-five rupees but does not exceed one hundred rupees per half year.	Five rupees per half year.

(iii) On all capital moneys or trust funds invested by him including the purchase or sale of immovable property or any investment by way of mortgage, a fee of one-fourth per cent on the amount of the investment or the value of any property purchased or sold, such fee being realised from the income of the beneficiary requiring a change of investment and not from the gross value of the trust.

(2) If in any case it appears to the Official Trustee that the circumstances of a trust are, or probably will be, such as to render his duties in relation thereto exceptionally simple or otherwise of an exceptional character justifying this course, he may, with the previous sanction of the State Government remit the whole or any part of the prescribed fee.

(3) When in the opinion of the Official Trustee the income of any trust is not liable to serious fluctuations, he may, with the previous sanction of the State Government from time to time charge [in lieu of the fee other than the fee on capital payable in pursuance of sub-rule (1)] a fixed half-yearly fee of such amount as may be reasonable.

(4) The capital value of immovable properties, for purpose of levying commission shall be fifteen times the annual gross rentals derived from the said properties on the date when the Official Trustee takes possession of the said properties.

(5) For purposes of levying commission the movables shall be valued by the Official Trustee at the time he takes possession of them.

(6) Commission on interest realised from securities shall be levied on the net amount collected by the Official Trustee in the course of administration.

3. (1) All fees and commission leviable under these rules except those chageable to a trust under the charge of the Official Trustee shall be payable to him in advance by the person liable to pay the same.

(2) All fees and commissions collected by the Official Trustee under the provisions of these rules shall be paid by him on or before the 20th of the month following that in which they are realised, into the State Huzur Treasury, Bangalore, to the credit of the Government:

Provided that the Official Trustee may make refunds of fees and commission overcharged from the fees and commission collected by him under the provisions of these rules.

(3) Any sum payable as commission or fees in pursuance of these rules shall be taken to the nearest anna, i.e., any sum from six pies to eleven pies shall be charged as one anna and any sum less than six pies shall be remitted.

4. The Official Trustee shall keep the following and such other registers as may be prescribed from time to time by Government :—

5. (1) The Official Trustee shall, evey year, on or before the 1st day of September, deliver to the Government a true schedule showing the gross amount of all sums of money and all bonds or other securities received or paid or delivered by him on account of each trust of which he is the trustee and the balances during the year ending on the thirty-first day of March next before the day of delivering such schedule and a true schedule of all trusts which shall have come to an end or of which the Official Trustee shall have ceased to be the trustee and the property subject to which shall have been paid or made over to the persons entitled to the same or to new trustees during the same period specifying the nature and amount or value of such property and the persons to whom the same has been paid or made over.

(2) The Official Trustee shall be entitled to the payment of such fee as the State Government may prescribe from time to time for the preparation of the yearly schedules under the last preceding rule in addition to the cost of printing the same.

6. (1) The accounts and schedules of the Official Trustee shall be audited every year and the Controller, State Accounts Department, Bangalore, shall from time to time appoint an auditor or auditors to examine the accounts and schedules of the Official Trustee.

(2) The auditor or auditors shall submit to the State Government together with the audit report a statement of the accounts in the forms specified below :—

(i) Abstract of cash and Government or other securities received and paid during the year (Statement A).

(ii) Official Trustee's balance for the year (Statement B).

(iii) Abstract of the Official Trustee's commission account for the year (Statement C).

(iv) Statement of cash balances of Rs. 500 and upwards on the last day of the year with reasons for non-investment (Statement D).

(3) The Controller, State Accounts Department, Bangalore, shall be entitled to a remuneration at the rate of seven annas per cent on the value of the transactions in each trust estate except in cases in which a fixed fee is payable by agreement with the approval of the State Government, for his services in connection with each yearly audit. The said remuneration shall be defrayed by all the trust estates as aforesaid provided that the mere conversion of securities into cash and vice versa or a mere change of security shall not be deemed to be a transaction for the purpose of this sub-rule.

(4) (a) The fee due to the Official Trustee under sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 for the preparation of the yearly schedules together with the costs and expenses of printing them, shall be defrayed by all the trust estates except in cases in which a fixed fee is payable by agreement with the approval of the State Government in proportion to the value of the transactions in each estate, provided that the mere conversion of securities into cash and vice versa or a mere change of securities shall not be deemed to be a transaction for the purposes of this clause.

(b) The remuneration of the Controller, State Accounts Department, Bangalore, under sub-rule (3) and the proportion of the fee of the Official Trustee under clause (a) of this sub-rule shall be ascertained and settled by the auditor or auditors and shall be paid out of the trust estates accordingly by the Official Trustee.

(5) When a trust estate is about to be closed, the Official Trustee may call upon the auditor or auditors to ascertain and fix a definite sum to be retained by the Official Trustee to defray the costs and expenses referred to in sub-rule (4) supra in respect of the estate in question. The sum thus fixed by the auditor or auditors shall be treated as the proportion of the above charges to be contributed by the trust estate in question. The sum so fixed shall be immediately transferred to a separate account called "The closed estates audit, etc., charges account" and appropriated towards the audit charges, fees for preparation of and the charges for printing the schedules when they become payable.

7. (1) No person shall be entitled to inspect the accounts relating to a trust and the reports and certificates of the auditor relating thereto, without first satisfying the Official Trustee that he is a beneficiary under the trust:

Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall preclude the Official Trustee from refusing inspection of documents and papers of a confidential nature, and the decision of the Official Trustee in this respect shall be final.

(2) Every beneficiary desiring such inspection shall, at least one clear day before the day on which he desires inspection, apply in writing to the Official Trustee setting forth the following particulars:—

(a) His name and address;
(b) The name of the trust as to which inspection is desired;
(c) The nature of his interest in such trust;
(d) The day on which he desires inspection;

He shall also deposit with the application a minimum fee of one rupee which shall be refunded to the applicant in case inspection is not granted.

(3) The Official Trustee shall, after being satisfied as to the interest of the applicant in the trust or matter in question and also as to his bona fides, appoint an hour on the day named in the application for inspection by the applicant under such supervision as he thinks fit. If for any sufficient reason inspection cannot be granted on the day named by the applicant, the Official Trustee shall appoint some other hour and day convenient to the applicant.

(4) A fee calculated at the rate of one rupee for every half hour or fraction thereof shall be paid by the applicant in respect of every such inspection as relates to trust estates which have not been closed in the hands of the Official Trustee. The fee for such inspection in respect of closed trust estates shall be calculated at the rate of two rupees for every half hour or fraction thereof.

(5) No person shall be entitled to obtain copies of or extracts from the said accounts, certificates and reports of the auditor unless he is a person entitled to inspection thereof:

Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall preclude the Official Trustee from refusing grant of copies of documents and papers of a confidential nature, and the decision of the Official Trustee in this respect shall be final.

(6) A fee calculated at the rate of four annas per folio of 72 words subject to a minimum of one rupee shall be levied in respect of every copy or extract granted, and if any such copy or extract is required to be certified by the Official Trustee as a true copy, an additional fee of one rupee shall be levied.

8. (1) Whenever owing to doubts or disputes as to the person or persons beneficially entitled or for any other cause, there shall remain in the hands of the Official Trustee a cash balance of Rs. 500 or more belonging to any trust estate, he shall, without delay, in the absence of any directions in this respect in the deed or other declaration of trust, invest the same in Government securities or in any of the securities in which trustees are authorised to invest by the provisions of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882 (II of 1882), for the time being in force, save and except that no investment on mortgage of immovable property shall be made by the Official Trustee without the previous sanction of the High Court.

(2) The Official Trustee shall procure that all Government and other securities which may be issued, delivered or transferred to him on account of any trust estate, whether by endorsement or otherwise, shall be issued, delivered or transferred in the name of his office.

(3) The Official Trustee shall not at any time retain in his keeping a larger sum in cash than Rs. 300. The fees and commissions realised by the Official Trustee should be credited to the head "XXI. Administration of Justice—Miscellaneous Fees and Fines" and the charges on account of the Official Trustee and his establishment debited to the head "27 Administration of Justice—Administrator-General and Official Trustee." For the receipts and payments arising out of the administration of the trust estates and properties a personal deposit account may be opened in the name of the Official Trustee for the Mysore State in the State Huzur Treasury.

(4) All Government securities, bank, railway or other shares and debenture coming into the Official Trustee's charge shall forthwith be lodged by him in the District Treasury, Bangalore, for safe custody, except in cases in which it may be necessary for him to retain them temporarily for any purpose.

(5) All jewellery, trinkets and other valuable articles coming into the possession of the Official Trustee shall forthwith be lodged for safe custody in the District Treasury, Bangalore, except in case in which it may be necessary for the Official Trustee to retain them temporarily for any purpose.

9. Remittances to foreign countries of sums of money payable or belonging to persons resident in those countries shall be made by purchasing bills of exchange payable on demand drawn by the Bank of Mysore, Ltd., Bangalore.

10. (1) When the administration of a trust is completed as far as it is possible and the accounts of the trust have been closed and audited, and no claim thereto has been put forward, the fact of such completion and closure shall be notified in the local official Gazette with the particulars of the amounts remaining unclaimed and if ascertainable, the names of the person or persons prima facie entitled to the same. The notice shall further state that the amounts shall be transferred to Government if they are not claimed within a period of twelve years from the date of the notification. The period of twelve years prescribed under Section 23 of the Official Trustee's Act, 1913, shall be reckoned from the date of such notification.

(2) All moneys transferable to the credit of Government under Section 23 of the Act shall be paid to its credit into the State Huzur Treasury, by the Official Trustee.

(3) Any person claiming payment of the same under the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 24 of the Act, shall establish his claim to the satisfaction of Government.

11. The Official Trustee may accept any trust intended for the safeguarding and investment of the property of a religious institution or of a commercial undertaking or for the protection of the interests of the creditors of such institution or undertaking provided that he shall not be liable to see that the proper performances or carrying out of the objects of such religious or charitable institution or to see to the proper management or carrying on of the business of such commerical undertaking.

12. Notification of the contents of a will under Section 9 of the Act shall be made by forwarding to the Official Trustee either the original will or the probate copy of the same or the copy of the letters of administration with the copy of the will annexed.

13. The Official Trustee may, after closing the accounts of any trust in his hands, destroy any private papers, bills, receipts, memoranda and other similar documents of no value which he has received along with the trust and which are not claimed by the beneficiaries, or any other persons entitled thereto, within three months after such closing has taken place.

14. Without the sanction of the State Government the Official Trustee shall not enter upon any litigation in connection with an estate in his charge the expenses of which are likely to exceed the assets of the estate already in his hands, unless he is properly and sufficiently indemnified against such expenses.

Explanation.—By 'proper and sufficient indemnity' is meant indemnity sufficient to cover all probable costs and consisting in the deposit of Government securities, cash or jewels to an amount to be determined by the Official Trustee.

15. The Official Trustee may advance such amounts as he thinks fit to the estate clerks and agents employed by him for incurring contingent expenditure. The amount of the advance shall be regulated with reference to the amount of security furnished by the clerk or agent concerned and accounted for so as to conform to the principles contained in Mysore Civil Accounts Code.

16. The Official Trustee shall maintain a record of all cases in which the properties of trusts are kept under the lock and seal of the Official Trustee or left in the custody of a beneficiary or any other person for his use or occupation with or without an undertaking to produce whenever necessary. A register in Form No. 23 shall be kept for the purpose. Such properties shall be checked at least once in a year either by the Official Trustee or the Deputy Official Trustee with the inventory thereof and a certificate to that effect shall be entered in the said register.

17. The Official Trustee may recoup from out of the contingent grant made to his office, sums below Rs. 10 at debit of any trust, the recovery of which is doubtful or impossible.

18. The Deputy Official Trustee if empowered in this behalf by the Official Trustee may sign on behalf of the Official Trustee the receipts issued for moneys, cheques and other valuables received in the said office.
